News From THE STATE SOLDIERS' HOME At Fort Dodge, Kas.

Austin Tuttle of the 8th Ill. and Mrs. Tuttle have moved out of the "Fuller" barracks—so named because it was getting fuller during the boom times.

Mrs. Sponsler has taken charge of the Fuller barracks after mentioned temporarily until a suitable shell can be found.

Charles G. Scranlon, H. 8th Ill. Inf., goes to Yates Center on 90 days furlough. He has been located for sometime at the Single Men barracks.

Elijah M. Wilson, A. 10th Mo. Inf., has returned from Ellsworth, whether he went on furlough.

John E. Fessell, A. 10th Ind. Inf., has been making apudular researches into the geological formation of the earth. He thinks spiders are trumps sometimes.

W. J. Spencer and Mrs. Spencer have returned from Wisconsin. W. J. is an old timer about Dodge City, and can tell many stories of the early days when Dodge was wild and woolly, as Tiger Bill Campbell of Wichita said, "when Dodge City was a-b-d".

Rev. Morrison preached on Sabbath at 11 a. m. and also at night. Bro. Morrison has not entirely recovered from his recent illness as his appearance shows.

At 9 o'clock p. m. Rev. Patterson preached the funeral service of John W. Couriney, E. 10th Ky. Inf., who died here recently. Rev. Patterson resides near Ford. He has no regular work this year but goes whenever called. Rev. Pattersons wife accompanied him.

We have had many copious rains for several weeks. We do not have to bother Jerry for water to irrigate with anymore and he can take a much needed rest.

We are all getting ready to take in the reunion in Wright's park and many are going to Dodge September 4th. "Rais on high your banner that its folds may fly."

Visitors—R. B. Hobbie, T. A. Hobbie, Ella Hobbie, Loree Hobbie all of Dodge City. The Forees, Kinsley, Nannie Acker, Dodge City. R. A. Watrous, Montrose, Pa. Alphonse Walton, Kinsley, Mrs. W. A. Miller and children, Crawford, Kansas. W. A. Miller, Crawford, Kansas. Cera Miller and Cecil Miller, Crawford, Kansas. J. B. Dobyns, Howard, Kansas. Joseph M. Lambert, Howard, Kansas. Mrs. Bertha White, Sedalia, Mo. Lena Berg, Dodge City. Lizzie Bogturs, Ashland, Kansas. William Thomas, St. Louis, Mo. Mrs. Nellie Woods and children, Geneseo, Kansas.

FORD ITEMS.

Scott Campbell had a narrow escape from losing his new separator in W. A. Balfour's wheat field one day during the noon hour. A whirl of wind sent a burning coal from the tender to the straw around the separator. The engineer and water man had just arrived and with quick haste drew the separator with the engine to a safe distance.

J. A. Melia threshed a field of oats for O. N. Nevins that averaged over 50 bushels per acre.

The waters of the Arkansas river have become a pleasant bathing resort for the young ladies of Ford. One young gentleman, our reporter, was so charmed with the description of their bathing suits that he has secured one with some variations and has announced tri-weekly lessons in aquatic art. Exhibits from 8 to 9 p. m. Sundays excepted.

E. O. Snook is building a granary on his farm and John Lloyd one on his lot in town.

A fire from the R. I. train burnt five stacks of wheat for Will Dellinger Tuesday.

J. M. Troyer lost a valuable cow found Sunday morning dead in a kaffir patch in a sitting position on all four's, a singular position for an animal not killed suddenly.

Earl Cobb and family came up from Woods county, Oklahoma last week and will visit with his mother's family for a short time.

Willhite will soon start another outfit in the threshing business.

Perry Troyer came up from Reno county where he spent harvest. His brother came with him but returned the first of the week.

A number of Ford young people joined the excursionists to Green Mountains and Colorado Springs, Colorado and returned happy.

Miss Coe of Yates Center is visiting her brother W. A. and family who will go in a few days to their new home in Idaho.

Ford grain buyers have shipped 35 cars of from 60 to 63 test wheat to date.

O. N. Nevins and wife arranged to take a trip to the Pacific coast and visit the Portland exposition and many other points of interest. They will leave Wednesday.

Miss Eula Nevins has returned from Emporia to remain home during her mothers absence on her western trip.

Miss Kathleen Morrison was offered a position in the Bucklin schools and has accepted it in lieu of the Spearville primary. Miss Morrison's worth as a teacher easily wins her a position where known.

L. K. VanHorne one day last week took 125 loads of grain of an average of 53 bushels per load.

L. K. VanHorn is putting in new scales at his elevator.

Fire

In the twink of an eye can destroy your home and your business. Richard W. Evans, Jr. can prevent the loss. Call at his office and let him tell you about it.

The Verdict.
